John 2:13-25

3rd Sunday of Lent

My name is _____

Jesus says he is the Temple of God, and he will come back to life after he dies. The people do not understand, and think he is talking about the Temple where they are standing. Jesus is not afraid to stand up for what is right and tells off the people who are trading in God's house and being dishonest.

GOD'S HOUSE

Help these children find their way to church, the house of God.

In church we...

Tick the good things that we do in church.

Like a church

Fill in the grid with these words that show Jesus is like a church:

The Temple was a beautiful building in Jerusalem where people prayed, like a special church.

STRONG

FRIENDLY

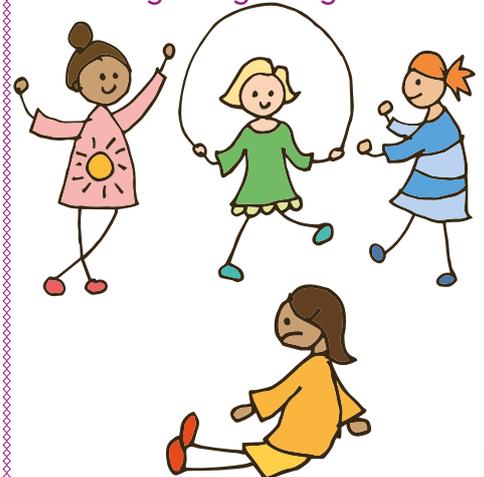

SAFE

HOLY

WARM

Standing up for what is right

Sometimes we need to stand up for what is right and good. Seeing something that is unfair or wrong can make us cross. Maya is angry to see the girls ignoring Xiang.

Draw, or write about, your ideas for how she could help.

A PRAYER TO SAY

Dear Jesus, thank you for always being there for us, and for giving us your strong love. Help us to spread your love, so that the world may be a beautiful place. Amen.
