

Photo Release Form – First Holy Communion, Belair 2027

As part of the preparation and celebration of First Holy Communion, we occasionally take photographs of the children.

These images may be used as part of our public relations on the website of the English-speaking Community: www.catholic.lu

Any captions accompanying the photos will not provide any information that would specifically identify the children or their families.

The law requires us to have written permission from parents for this use. We would like to draw your attention to the fact that the use of images is not for profit and without publication of names.
